STATEMENT + RESOURCES

NATIONAL STATEMENT

Assalamu Alaikum dear fellow MAS members,

We would like to share a message with you in this sacred month of Rajab which coincides this year with Black History Month.

Rajab is one of the four sacred months in the Islamic calendar, and Allah (swt) warns us in the Qur'an "Do not wrong yourselves during them." (9:36) How do we wrong ourselves? We wrong ourselves by transgressing on the Rights of Our Creator and by transgressing on the rights of His creation. So not only do we wrong ourselves by committing sins, like delaying our prayers or not reading and reflecting on the Quran regularly, but we also wrong ourselves by ignoring injustices including systemic racism, failing to educate ourselves and taking action on pressing issues of social justice, and by undermining others through our words or actions.

In this month, adopt the double intentions of honoring the sacred month of Allah while also honoring and centering the movement for justice and equity for Black America. This includes fighting back against voter suppression, confronting racism within our communities and mosques, tackling the school-to-prison pipeline and mass incarceration, housing injustice, etc. This is critical so that we do not wrong ourselves, our brethren in humanity, our movement, our religion, and our country, through our ignorance and disengagement. We cannot be spectators on the sideline, just praying for things to get better. We must be part of the solution and active participants in righting wrongs. As we right ourselves with extra dhikr, prayers, dua, and fasting, let us also commit to examining our words and actions and priorities towards our brothers and sisters from the African American community. We have a responsibility to listen, learn, change, and act.
